NEWS OF THE DAY

Alsatian troops garrisoning Alost are giving the German military authorities a great deal of trouble. They desert wholesale, and their knowledge of French enables them to mingle with the civilian population.

A majority of the Supreme Court yesterday joined in an opinion that the Oklahoma "jim crow" law proviso permitting railroads to furnish sleeping, dining, and chair car accommodations only to the white race was unconstitutional.

Leo M. Frank's application for a review of his conviction in Georgia courts for the murder of Mary Phagan, an Atlanta factory girl, came before the entire Supreme Court yesterday after having been previously denied by two individual justices, one of whom expressed the opinion that Frank had not had due process of law. Chief Justice White received the motion, saying only that the court would take the papers. A decision may be announced next Monday.

A mine, with five contact points extending from it, is afloat 6 miles west of Fire Island light, according to Captain Davies, of the steamship Etonian, which arrived at New York yesterday from London. Captain Davies said that he passed the mine about 10 o'clock yesterday morning while his ship was bound in. The spot where the mine is said to be adrift lies in the pathway traveled by all transatlantic vessels leaving and entering New York harbor.

A message from Brussels to the Amsterdam Handlesblad states that the German governor of the province of Brabant, in which Brussels is located, convoked a meeting of the financiers, and told them that Belgium must pay $7,000,000 monthly for the maintenance of the German troops. In addition to this sum it is said, Belgium must contribute a war levy of $75,000,000 as a penalty for violations of neutrality by Belgium and losses ensuing therefrom to Germany.

Rather than electrocute 10 men who have been sentenced to death here Luther Casting, electrician at the Arkansas penitntiary, Arkansas, has presented his resignation. No action has been taken on the resignation, as the authorities say they know of no one to take Casting's place.

The segregated district of Gary, Ind., which has been closed since July 29 reopened Sunday night with the sanction of the mayor and the chief of police. The administration announced that the policy of suppression has been practically a failure. They found it impossible to prevent disorderly places springing up in residence sections, they said and decided that the protection of the community demanded a segregated district under police regulation. A secret meeting of the Gary Association of Ministers decided to call on the mayor and demand that he close the houses under threat of impeachment.

J. B. Jordan, janitor of the First Methodist Church at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, is under arrest charged with the murder of his 19 year old daughter Inez. The girl died on November 18 as a result, it is charged, of eating poisoned pancakes.

Despondent over the death of her sweetheart, Frank Summers, who was killed when his automobile overturned at Decatur, Ill., Sunday night, Miss Ura Scott, a prominent young Cinton woman, committed suicide yesterday by taking poison.

Without having had the slightest information that their King was any place but in the royal palace, the people of London were astonished yesterday by an official announcement from the government press bureau that George V is in France with his troops.

Expert Potographers Testify That Two Negatives Were Combined

Staunton, Dec. 1—Photographers testified in Circuit Court here Saturday that a picture introduced by Attorney Charles Curry, who is defending Meade Shuey, a young man charged with seduction under promise of marriage, is a fake. The picture was introduced by Curry to prove that the girl allowed herself to be photographed in a compromising position.

Expert witnesses declared that two negatives, one of Lelia May Manley, the plaintiff, and another of some other woman, had been combined to produce the picture and influence the jury.

The case is one of the most sensational Staunton has ever heard.

The negro killed him with a shotgun fired at short range, and the whole heart was torn away as Mr. Lee fell dead.

Thanks From Alexandria Hospital

Throughout the month of November the good people of Alexandria have been most liberal in remembering the needy sick who are from day to day sent into our hospital. On Thanksgiving day our Annual donation day, there were many who brought of their substance in money and groceries and useful articles to the hospital. This year there are so many calls for help at home and abroad that we very much appreciate those who have shown by their gifts that they have not forgotten our constant need. As the cold weather comes on there are many sick who are driven from their homes by cold and need that seek shelter under the hospital roof. We shall endeavor to render a good stewardship over the gifts they have entrusted to us and we hereby thank them and wish for them the blessing promised to those who give to the poor which means lending to the Lord.

Very truly yours
Rebecca N. Ballinger, Pres. of Board.

Paris, Dec. 1—Every able-bodied German in Belgium that can be spared from garrison duty is on the fighting line between Ypres and the sea. Rports reaching here today declare that during the lull in the fighting of the past week Belgium towns back of the lines were emptied to the last man that could be spared.

A fierce attack is said to have been directed against the allied lines between Ypres and the Lys. More than 300,000 Germans are massed for this assault.

The rush of re-enforcements to the northern line is believed to be in anticipation of an offensive movement by the French and British. In case of a German retreat being necessary heavy forces will be necessary to hold the allies in check to cover the Germans in their withdrawal to their line of concrete trenches. further toward the interior.

"MISS FEARLESS & CO."

Interesting Entertainment at Westminister Building Last night

One of the most enjoyable home talent plays seen in Alexandria for years, was that given last evening by Del Ray talent at the Westminster Building.

The play, from beginning to end was bright, breezy and full of interest. Each member of the cast performed her part as though she had been on the stage all her life. Indeed, one may have thought it an "all star" cast.

Mrs. Robert Yates as "Katie, the Maid," could not have been improved upon. Mrs. Ellett as "Sarah Jane Lovejoy" won the hearts of the audience when she first made her appearance with her cat and favorite chicken, and held them throughout the entire performance.

Mrs. Gary, as the lovesick spinster did her part wonderfully well. "Miss Fearess of Vassar" and her three girl friends which constituted the company were fine.

Last but not least among the successes of the evenings' entertainment was the ghost who proved to be "Only Lizzie." It is to be regretted that so many people had to miss this play; for as there were other attractions in the city, the hall was not filled to its capacity. The music alone was worth more than the price of the ticket.

GERMAN LINES IN POLAND INTACT

Both Armies Now Locked in Terrific Struggle for Mastery.

LINE 100 MILES LONG

Kaiser's Army, Reinforced, Will Attempt to Hurl Muscovites Back Upon Warsaw.

London, Dec. 1—Russian and German official statements give every indication that the German lines in Poland are intact and that the forces are now locked in a terrific battle extending over what virtually amounts to a front of 100 miles.

There are three points of contact from the German positions south of Plock, through Lowicz and Lodz and southeast of Cracow. The armies have gradually merged into one great force during the past week, however, and the development of the past two days clearly indicated that early Russian reports were overly optimistic.

General Von Hindenburg's army, which was composed largely of conscripts of next year's line, has now been re-enforced and with the Kaiser at the eastern front it is believed a supreme effort is about to be made to hurl the Russian offensive back upon Warsaw.

Every confidence is felt here that the Russians now hold the advantage, but it is realized that the conflict in the eastern theater is far from a decision.

When the big battle is finally fought and the results and details are learned it is believed it will prove to be the most sanguinary conflict of the war. Its influence upon the entire situation will also be of the greatest importance. Some military experts believe that the Germans are now marking time in the west, awaiting the outcome of General Von Hindenburg's conflict with the Russians. Defeat in the east, it is believed, would be followed by immediate retirement of the Germans to their second line of defenses in Belgium. The Kaiser would then be completely on the defensive on both sides.

GERMAN FOOD SUPPLY.

Washington, Dec 1— Germany is going the limit in order to conserve her food supply, Vice Consul Dreyfus reported to the State Department. Edicts have been promulated, he said, to all house wives to save even potatoes peelings and beet heads as food for cattle in order to save corn and oats for human consumption

A further consideration of conservation of both potatoes and cereals for food purposes has been affected, said the consul, by the decision of the government to cut down the production of alcohol 40 per cent

More intensive farming has been planned he declares as well as greater care in the conservation of products hitherto considered ac waste materials

Because in normal times more than 3,000,000 tons of potatoes rot in Germany every year, the government has agreed to loan farmers money to erect drying houses. When the potatoes are dried potato flour is made. Many bakers are already using as much as 20 per cent of this flour with rye and wheat flour in making bread, Dreyfus stated.

The government is asking no interest on the money until 1916.

FAMILY GIVES VERSION

Alleged That Young Humphries Was Struck by Live Wire Last Sunday.

The distresing accident to the eight-year-od son of Mr. and Mrs. John Humphries at the old Fayette street depot last Sunday is still a subject of conversation in the neighborhood and the family of the unfortunate boy have the sincere sympathy of all.

According to statements made in the locality, children had been warned to give the hanging wire a wide berth in passing but the parents of the Humphries boy say their little one had not been so warned, and that he walked close enough for his head to come in contact with the wire. They allege that his head and one of his ears show that he was burned by the contact. The parents assert that he did not take hold of the deadly wire, as was stated and that he was on his way to his grandmother's house, for the purpose of carrying soup to her when he met his death.

It is further alleged that the charged wire had for some time occasioned anxiety to parents in the neighborhood and the dangerous menace had been reported.

The coroner's jury will reassemble next Friday night when material witnesses will be examined and the facts in the case brought out.

Representative Carlin of Virginia, who called at the White House for a few minutes yesterday, declared that he proposes to do everything within his power to obtain an appropriation at the coming session of Congress for a new Aqueduct bridge at Georgetown. He left the White House to see Secretary Garrison, with whom he talked for some time. laying before that official considerable data and asking Mr. Garrison to request the engineers of the army to make a report at the earliest possible moment.

"I have introduced in the House a bill providing for a new bridge in place of the old Aqueduct structure," said Mr. Carlin, "and I am exceedingly desirous of getting the matter in shape to push the bill at the coming session of Congress. I shall insit upon an appropriation of at least $1,500,000, as the location demands a bridge costing at least that much. The Commissioners reported favorably upon my bill upholding my contention that the present structure is not only becoming more unsafe each day, but that it is so old and antiquated as to fail utterly in properly caring for the congestion of traffic which occurs at differenet periods of the day.

"The erection of a new bridge is a real necessity and I believe Congress will view the matter in that light. I hope to obtain from the War Department a favorable report upon my bill and recommendations for a substantial and commodious new bridge that will take care of the constantly increasing traffic in that vicinity. The War Department is as much interested in the matter as the citizens of the District and Virginia, owing to the proximity of Fort Myer and other government reservations."

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE WAR.

The nations of Europe engaged in war are endeavoring to enlist the sympathy of counties now at peace and to this end are sending out lengthy statements concerning the origin of the fearful conflict now in progress. The United States is being flooded with literature in which the authors attempt to fix the blame for the hostilities. The British War Office some time ago sent out pamphlets which gave the diplomatic correspondence preceding the conflict, in which the editors endeavored to prove that England resorted to every possible means to avert the clash of arms. The Berlin War Office soon published a pamphlet from Germany's standpoint in which the writers gave an exhaustive history of conditions leading to the conflict and painted the Kaiser as a lover of peace and a sovereign who had worked assiduously toward that end.

The papers today contain a statement from the French Minister of Foreign Affairs which gives France's version of the origin of the war. After having read closely the three documents referred to, we are slow to form an opinion. The statement of each party to the conflict seems plausible, but that the war could have been averted seems plain.

The French Minister places the blame directly upon Austria, which country sent an ultimatum to Servia the terms of which could not be complied with by any self-respecting nation. He insists that Germany could have used her good offices successfully with the Emperor Francis Joseph, who would have taken off some of the keen edge of the ultimatum if the German Emperor really desired peace.

Vienna, he says, was on the edge of reason and would have listened to the Kaiser.

Weekly periodicals favorable to the cause of Germany are being published in the United States. The main object of the editors is to enlist sympathy for the Fatherland. Among the suggestions made is that England, Germany and the United States being of Teutonic origin, should realize the importance of working in unison.

In this terrible war those at the head of public affairs in this country are acting wisely. They have forbidden the rendition in this country of war songs of the bellicose nations and are posing spectators, anxious at the opportune moment to offer their services in the interests of peace.

UNHAPPY MEXICO.

There are at present no signs whatever of peace in Mexico. The number of rival claimants for the Presidency is being multiplied daily and dual capitals and governments are arraigned in deadly array against each other. Many people in the United States still believe the withdrawal of the forces of this country from the land of disorder was premature, and that the time will come when the big stick will be necessary to bring about pacific conditions.

The inhabitants of the country who desire peace form but a small minority. The land is full of adventurers and pretenders and it seems impossible for the majority to agree upon the formation of any staple government.

Uncle Sam has for many years been recognized as the policeman of the South American country. So long as he performs his duty the Monroe doctrine is submitted to by other countries. This nation has done all that could be expected during the unfortunate troubles in Mexico and many are convinced that the time has come when means other than moral suasion should be resorted to.

The leaders of the different factions in Mexico do not desire peace so long as their claims for supremacy are denied, and the disorder now in progress and which has continued so long will doubtless be chronic as long as it is tolerated.

People who are vitally interested in Mexico would rejoice to see this reign of terror brought to an end, but time has shown that the present warring factions will never bring about peace. If the country is to be saved from anarchy, the day has come when drastic measures should be inaugurated in order to bring the belligerents to their senses.

Crewe, Va. Dec. 1.—The Baptist Church at this place was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon. This church had just been completed, new Sunday School rooms having been added, the entire church painted and a new heating plant instaled. It is supposed the fire originated from the furnace. The damage was about $10.000 with insurance very ittle, if any.

CORNS QUIT, PAINS STOP, WITH "GETS-IT."

Quit Plasters, Salves and What-Not

After using "Gets-It" once you will never again have occasion for asking, "What can I do to get rid of my corns," "Gets-It" is the first sure, certain corn-ender ever known.

If you have tried other things by the score and will now try "GETS-IT" you will realize this glorious fact.

You probably are tired stickling on tape that won't stay stuck, plasters that shift themselves right onto your corn, contraptions that make a bundle of your toe and press right down on the corn. Put two drops of "GETS-IT" on that corn in two seconds. The corn is then doomed as sure as night follows day. The corn shrivels. There's no pain, no fuss. If you think this sounds too good to be true try it tonight on any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

Emergency Value Plus Convenience

The Bell telephone has two qualities which recommend it for both home and office--emergency value and convenience. Unlike many things of emergency value, the telephone does not lay idle for most of the time, waiting. It is also useful between emergencies.

Its emergency value does not detract from its daily convenience in shopping, in talking with one's friends, in transacting general business.

Telephone service costs only a few cents a day. You should not be without it.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"— said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Says the Farmer:

"When a man asks me what I'll take for my cotton I don't even begin to figure until I've had a chew of PICNIC TWIST.

"When your answer means something, it's then you want something to help you do some quick, clear, sure thinking before you say anything."

Last year the farmers made $9,000,000,000 worth of crops. They did some thinking, and PICNIC TWIST helped.

Do you want a tobacco that will give you the "punch" today without the "bump" tomorrow?

Then try PICNIC TWIST.

In it you get only the mild, mellow part of the leaf. In these soft, convenient twists there's more satisfaction than there is in any dark, "strong" tobacco.

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value Mrs. O. E. GIRL MASQUERADERS.

Had Run Away From Her Virginia Home With Two Boys.

Norfolk, Dec. 1—When the authorities at Crewe, Va., took three supposed "hoboes" from a freight car Sunday they thought they were all males. They did not discover that one of them was a young girl until the police station was reached, and Miss Susie Jenkins admitted her sex.

The young girl and the two boys ran away from their homes in Portsmouth several days ago. Their parents had asked the police to help find the runaways, but it was not until Sunday that any trace of them was found.

The authorities at Crewe have been waging a war against tramps for more than a month, and make daily inspection of all freight trains. They came upon the girl and her companion in a freight car, the doors of which were closed but not locked.

The girl wore male attire, and her disguie was so complete that her sex might not have been discovered had she not become frightened when taken to police headquarters.

The boys were turned over to their parents but the girl was sent to the Industrial Home for Girls at Bon Air, Va.

Negro Assaults Postmaster

Petersburg, Va. Dec. 1.—Two negroes attacked Saturday night Walter Zijic, postmaster and merchant at Estes, a station on the Norfolk and Western Railway, in Prince George county, two miles from Petersburg. The assault occurred at Zijic's store. The merchant was struck on the head with a heavy missile by one of his assailants and knocked senseless. The trouble started when the negroes created a disturbance in Zijic's store in which is located the postoffice. The negroes were arrested and will have a hearing tomorrow.

RIVAL GUNMEN IN DUAL

Both Men Killed in Encounter in New York Last Night.

New York, Dec. 1—Two rival gunmen clashed in a duel last night in Brooklin. Seven shots were exchanged and when the smoke of battle had cleared away, two believed to have been leaders of gangs that have been working overtime for a month at their trade of blackmail and murder, lay dead on the sidewalk.

The encounter occurred in front of a moving picture playhouse at Union and Columbia Streeets. On one body there was nothing to give a clew to the identity of the man, and from the other the police got only a money order receipt. This showed that Guiseppi Pensabene had sent money to Maria Pensabene, in Gallico, Italy.

Witnesses of last night's shooting said they heard a shout of "Squealer" before any shots were fired.

It was about 9 o'clock when bullets began to fly at Union and Columbia streets. The show at the movie theater had just discharged a throng.

The first to fire was the smaller of the two, both of whom appeared to be about 25 years old and of Italian birth. He sent two shots into the shoulder and chest of the heavier man before the latter unlimbered. Despite the lead in his body, the second man was able to hit his opponent three times and then start to flee.

From his position on the sidewalk the smaller man fired two shots at the retreating figure. One lodged just under the shoulder; the other went into the back and reached the heart. The man tossed forward and fell into the arms of Sergt. McCormick, of the Amity street station, who reached the scene of the gun play at that moment. Patrolman Larkins ran to the sidewalk, and his experience with similar cases told him that a doctor could do nothing.

Dr. Osler on Tuberculosis

Sir William Osler, one of the foremost of living medical men, formerly of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, and now Regius Professor of Medicine at Oxford, says in his "Practice of Medicine" (1892), on page 249:

"The healing of pulmonary tuberculosis is shown clinically by the recovery of patients in whose sputa elastic tissue and bacilli have been found. * * * In the granulation products and associated pneumonia a scar tissue is formed, while the smaller caseous areas become impregnated with lime salts. To such conditions alone should the term healing be applied."

Many eminent medical authorities have testified to the efficacy of lime salts in the treatment of tuberculosis, and the success of Eckman's Alterative in this and allied throat and bronchial affections may be due partly to the fact that it contains a lime salt so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assimilated.

Widespread use of this remedy in numerous cases of tuberculosis—many of which appear to have yielded completely to it—justifies our belief that it is worth a trial, unless some other treatment already is succeeding. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs. We make no promises concerning it any more that reputable physicians give promises with their prescriptions, but we know of many cases in which IT HAS HELPED.

Your druggist has it or can get it, or you can send direct.

MADE TRIP THROUGH CANAL.

Cargo From California.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 1.—With the first cargo from California by the way of the Panama Canal, the big new steamer Montana of the American-Hawaiian Line, arrived here yesterday and was greeted by a big crowd. She docked at the Southern Railway pier at Pinners Point and was met by several tugs carrying citizens and officials of various transportation lines.

She brought a cargo of canned fruits, beans, dried fruit, etc. valued at more than $500,000. M. E. Kinsley, assistant traffic manager of the American Hawaiian Lines, came here to make arrangements for docking the vessel. He says if suitable docking facilities can be secured other steamers of his line will discharge their cargoes here instead of going north. It is claimed that a saving of 25 per cent on freight charges is made bringing the goods direct to this port by water instead of shipping them by rail as heretofore.

A native of Fauquier county, she lived here 50 years. Her husband died 20 years ago. She is survived by four daughters and three sons.

GERMAN BI-WEEKLY BULLETIN

Northern France Dec. 1—Forty-two prisoners have just been brought into this place. One, a man of about 45, who spent many years in London and who up to about two weeks ago had been one of the guards at the concentration camp for British, French, Belgian and Russian prisoners, talked about the biweekly bulletin which is issued to prosiners at the price of 5 centimes, the proceeds being supposed to go to the German Red Cross fund.

It is printed in four languages, and has already recorded the fall and destruction of Paris, shelling of London by Zeppelins, as well as the sudden death of the Czar of Russia on hearing of the great German victory in Poland weeks ago. After the first few issues the circulation dropped to zero.

This prisoner said that one day last week a whole regment mutinied and threatened to surrender to the allied forces unless they were at once taken to staff headquarters and ther grievances attended to. Their demands were at once allowed.
